

PERFORMANCE EVALUATION POLICY

Codrus Minerals Limited (the Company) Performance Evaluation will be undertaken by the Board rather than Remuneration and Nomination Committee due to the current size of the Company, refer to Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter.

The Remuneration and Nomination Committee will arrange a performance evaluation of the Board, its Committees and its individual Directors on an annual basis.

The Remuneration and Nomination Committee will conduct an annual review of the role of the Board, assess the performance of the Board over the previous 12 months and examine ways of assisting the Board in performing its duties more effectively.

The review will include:

1. comparing the performance of the Board with the requirements of its Charter;
2. examination of the Board's interaction with management;
3. the nature of information provided to the Board by management;
4. management's performance in assisting the Board to meet its objectives; and
5. the Board's performance in achieving the Company's objectives and strategies.

A similar review will be conducted for each Committee by the Board with the aim of assessing the performance of each Committee and identifying areas where improvements can be made.

The Remuneration and Nomination Committee will oversee the performance evaluation of the executive team on an annual basis. This evaluation is based on specific criteria, including the business performance of the Company and its subsidiaries, whether strategic objectives are being achieved and the development of management and personnel. Other factors that will be considered include:

1. currency of a director's knowledge and skills; and
2. if a director's performance has been impacted by other commitments.

The Company will disclose whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in each reporting period in accordance with the process outlined above.
